DISCLAIMER:

This Proof of Bond is evidence that the NNA has issued a surety bond to the individual but is not evidence that the principal (Notary) has been granted a Notary commission. Some states require the bond to be purchased before an applicant submits an application for a Notary commission or requires the applicant to file the bond with a state or local government agency as a qualification for receiving a commission. The organization requiring Proof of Bond must verify the individual's commission status, not the NNA.
